EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the claims,

Claim 24, Line 2, "groove" in its first occurrence has been changed to
- -grooves- -.

This amendment was performed to correct a minor grammatical error.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Regarding claim 14, the prior art does not teach or suggest locating the panel on a die member having spaced generally parallel projecting lips configured to be received in the fastener grooves, the lips each including a mid-portion and opposed end portions and the mid-portion having a greater width than the end portions, in combination with the other claimed limitations; Regarding claim 24, the prior art does not teach or suggest locating the panel on a die member including an end face, an opening through said end face and generally parallel lips adjacent said opening projecting from said end face, each of the lips including a contact face, a mid-portion having a width less than a width of the grooves and opposed end portions having a width less than the mid-portion, in combination with the other claimed limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
